

The East Texas Historical Association

Spring Meeting

February 18, 2017

Marshall, Texas

The Marshall Visual Arts Center

8:30-8:45: Registration, Coffee, Donuts

8:45-9:00: Welcome: George Cooper, President East Texas Historical Association

Introductions: Scott Sosebee, Director, East Texas Historical Association

Session I: 9:00-9:45

Tom Sawyer Joins the Lost Generation: Artist Don Brown of Marshall

Victoria Cummins, Austin College

Sherman, Texas

Break: 9:45-10:00

Session II: 10:00-10:45

"No Man's Land:" East Texas African Americans in WWI

Lila Rakoczy, Project Director, East Texas African Americans in WWI

Huntsville, Texas

Break: 10:45-11:00

Session III: 11:00-11:45

Regulating the Personal: A Texas Legislative Tradition

Jessica Wranosky, Texas A&M University-Commerce

Commerce, Texas

Lunch Break: 11:45-1:15: Please enjoy lunch at your leisure. There are a number of dining choices in the downtown Marshall area.

Session IV: 1:15-2:00

They Don't Build Them Like They Used To: The Starr Family Home Historic Site

Barbara Judkins, Site Manager: Starr Family Home State Historic Site

Session V: 2:30—4:00

Special Group Tour of the Starr Family Home State Historic Site

Please join us for a tour of this significant historical site, which was a winner of the Association's Lucille Terry Award.

The Address of the home is:

407 W. Travis Street.

It is less than a mile from the Marshall Visual Arts Center, and within easy walking distance if you choose. If you wish to drive, there is ample parking space at the site.