

The Ottis Lock Endowment

Best Book on East Texas History

Application Form

The Ottis Lock Award for superior publication in East Texas history seeks to recognize outstanding publications in various areas of emphasis. Nominations, to be made by publishers, shall consist of a completed Lock nomination form, the author's vita, and three copies of the work nominated. Awards are announced at the ETHA annual meeting in Nacogdoches, Texas, each September. All nominating materials should be submitted to the ETHA office no later than May 1.
